These publications contain representations concerning matters of fact, which it appears to be a duty to correct. The Differences In New York. The title-page of the Statement sophistically hides a very important fact. The Differences of the State Society were primarily and mainly with a very large and respectable portion of its own members. They had been growing for many years, and culminated, in New York, in November, 1869, when a new Society was formed, called the New York Colonization Society. It was organized at a meeting called with the cordial approval, in writing, of Samuel F .B. Morse,...
