Which measures does the Cortes Generales possess to scrutinize instruments of crisis management Has it been actively using those to scrutinize European crisis management or has it been a mere rule taker To answer these questions it is essential to look at the role of national parliaments in the EU system first. In a second step we want to have a closer look at the role of the parliament in the Spanish political system to better understand the then following part that is dealing with what scrutiny measures the Cortes possess and how actively it has been using them during the Eurozone-crisis. During the last decades,...
