Excerpt: .be, it is none the less a desirable thing for a community to have for its own protection, and until our cities can substantially be rebuilt on modern lines, it should be the duty of the community to aid in the process of rehabilitation by reducing the taxa-tion on all honest attempts at incombustible building. THE day after the Baltimore fire, it was reported in some of the daily papers that a watchman in one of the-safety-deposit vaults had lived through the night in practical ignorance that the building above his head had been gutted by fire. Whether the tale was true or false, we do not know. Possibly the similar story that comes from San Francisco is merely a gloss on the Baltimore tale; but it is given circumstantially in the San Francisco Clzronicle, to the effect that one man, out of a...
